Day Five

Today is one for the History buffs. We take you to some historical points from the area. Dalgety, Bombala, Burnima Homestead, Nimmitabel, Cooma Gaol. Burnima Homestead was built in 1896. The homestead is a complete and fine example of a working Victorian homestead; such an atmosphere is created that once you enter the grounds through the formal carriage way, you step back to 1890.

The opulence of the homestead and the tranquillity of the gardens place you in an era long gone.
